1 Applications

1.1 Stand Applications

Applications to participate be made using the online "Exhibitor Registration" application form at www.itb-china.com (English Version) or at www.cn.itb-china.com (Chinese Version). This online registration should be completed carefully. The application is an irrevocable offer to enter into a contractual agreement with MB Exhibitions (Shanghai), to which the exhibitor is committed until the commencement of the event. After successful fulfillment of the online Application form the exhibitor will be sent a Stand Rental Agreement including the ordered services, such as ordered exhibition space in square meters, space type and price for the ordered space. The exhibitor shall accept this stand rental agreement by signing it through a legal representative.

1.2 Details of the Contract

The main sections of the contract are

a) the Online Application Form

b) The Exhibition Agreement

c) the Exhibition Terms and Conditions

d) the Regulations as contained in the Exhibitor Service Manual

e) the General Terms of Business.

Where there is conflict between these various regulations, they shall apply in the order listed above.

1.3 Conclusion of the Contractual Regulations

By signing the stand rental agreement, the exhibitor recognizes as binding the Terms of Business and Conditions of Participation, as well as the Regulations contained in the Exhibitor Service Manual. He is responsible for ensuring that those persons employed by him during the event also comply with the terms of the contract in every respect.

2 Joint Exhibitors

If a number of exhibitors intend to hire a stand jointly, they must name one of their number in their application who will be authorized to negotiate with MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) on their behalf. The authorized party bears the same liability for any faults or cases of negligence on the part of those whom he is authorized to represent as he does for his own faults and negligence. The participating exhibitors are liable jointly and severally to MB Exhibitions (Shanghai).

3 Conclusion of Contract

3.1 Confirmation of Order

MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) will confirm its decision to accept an offer with a written confirmation of order (acceptance of the exhibitor and the exhibits for which application has been made).

3.2 Restrictions on the Exhibitor and Exhibits

If relevant grounds exist, and in particular if there is insufficient space, MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) may exclude individual exhibitors from participating and may also limit the event to specific groups of exhibitors, if this becomes necessary in order to attain the objectives of the event. This also applies to exhibits.

3.3 Deviations from the Application

If MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) accepts the application for display space or for exhibits, subject to extensions, restrictions or other alterations, it is obliged to abide by this offer for a period of two weeks.

4 Allocation of Stands

4.1 Principle

In allocating the stand MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) will take into account the subject and the way in which a particular event is subdivided, as well as the space that is available. MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) will endeavor to meet specific requirements for stand locations wherever possible.

4.2 Changes to Adjoining Stands

The exhibitor should accept that changes may take place in the situation on other stands at the beginning of the event, compared with the time at which initial acceptance was granted. No claims for damages by either party can be entertained.

4.3 Exchanging Stands or Transferring them to Third Persons

The allocated stand may not be exchanged for that of another exhibitor, nor may it be transferred either partially or completely to a third person unless agreement has been reached with MB Exhibitions (Shanghai).

5 Exhibits

5.1 Removal, Exchange

Only the agreed exhibits may be displayed. Furthermore, they may only be removed subject to the approval of MB Exhibitions (Shanghai). Exhibits may only be replaced by other items if written agreement has been obtained from MB Exhibitions (Shanghai), and replacement must take place at least one hour before the official daily opening time, or one hour after the official closing time.

5.2 Exclusions

MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) is entitled to demand that exhibits should be removed if these were not included in the stand hire contract, or if they subsequently prove to cause annoyance or danger or are incompatible with the objectives of the event. In the event of non-compliance, MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) is entitled to have recourse to law in removing the exhibits at the exhibitor's expense.

5.3 Direct Sales

Unless expressly permitted, no items may be sold directly. If such approval is given the exhibits must be marked with clearly legible price tickets. It is the exhibitor's responsibility to obtain the necessary approval from the relevant authorities, and to observe these regulations. The Exhibitor Service Manual contains further details.

5.4 Protection of Copyrights and Patents

It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to ensure that copyrights and other laws governing industrial patents in People Republic of China (PRC) are complied with.

6 Payment Conditions

6.1 Date when Payment becomes Due

According to the confirmation of order, the stand rental is up until the MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) bank accounts listed on the invoice. These payments must be made within the time period specified in the Exhibition Terms and Conditions and be annotated with the invoice and customer number. The amounts are due for payment at the time the invoice is issued. A final invoice, if necessary, will be sent after the event ends.

6.2 Transfer of Claims, Offsetting Claims

Claims against MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) are not transferable. Claims of MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) shall not be offset.

6.3 Objections

Objections to invoices will only be considered in writing within 14 days following issue of the invoice.

6.4 Hirer's Rights of Lien

In order to secure any claims it may have, MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) shall be entitled to exercise its rights of lien as hirer, and to sell the items thus withheld as it wishes, following notification in writing. MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) is only liable for any damage to the items held in lien if such damage was caused maliciously or by gross negligence.

7 Liability, Insurance

7.1 MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) Co., Ltd. is only liable in case of (1) personal injuries sustained by the other party or (2) property losses caused by MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) Co., Ltd.'s deliberate acts or its gross negligence or (3) damages under the applicable laws for product defects (especially under the product quality law).

7.2 The exhibitor is liable in accordance with legal regulations. It is recommended that exhibitors carry sufficient insurance. For further details, see the Exhibitor Service Manual.

8 Cancellation, Non-participation on the Part of the Exhibitor; Withdrawal from the Contract by MB Exhibitions (Shanghai)

8.1 Cancellation, Non-participation on the Part of the Exhibitor

The full stand rental charge shall still be payable if the exhibitor cancels or fails to take part in the event without notification of cancellation. If the exhibitor cancels and another lessee can be found for the stand, MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) retains the right to demand 25% of the invoiced stand rental charge from the original lessee to cover costs. The full stand rental must be paid when MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) rents the agreed upon stand space, although the overall area is reduced as a result of the cancellation/non-participation. The lessee retains the right to submit evidence to prove that no such costs were incurred by MB Exhibitions (Shanghai), or that they were lower than stated. The right to assert additional claims remains unaffected.

8.2 Withdrawal by MB Exhibitions (Shanghai)

MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) is entitled to withdraw under the following circumstances:

a) if the rental charge is not received in full at the latest by the date stated in the invoice for participation costs and if the exhibitor does not pay before the expiry of any extension period that may be granted;

b) if the stand is not occupied in time, i.e. if it is not obviously occupied within 24 hours of the official opening;

c) if the exhibitor infringes domiciliary rights, and does not refrain from such actions even after being advised to do so;

d) if the registered exhibitor, as a private or corporate entity, no longer conforms to the requirements for granting acceptance, or if MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) subsequently becomes aware of any reasons which, had they been known before, would have excluded that person from participation. This applies in particular when bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings have been instituted, or if the exhibitor becomes insolvent. Exhibitors are required to inform MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) immediately in such circumstances. In that case, referred to above, MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) is entitled to claim damages. No. 8.1 may be applied accordingly.

9 Force Majeure

9.1 Cancellation of the Event

If MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) is prevented from holding the event for reasons outside its own control or that of the exhibitor, all claims to the stand rental become void. However, MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) may still invoice the exhibitor for work carried out in the latter's instructions, to cover any expenses already incurred, if the exhibitor is unable to furnish evidence that the results of this work are of no interest to him.

9.2 Rescheduling of the Event

If MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) is in a position to hold the event at a later date it must notify exhibitors immediately. Exhibitors are entitled to cancel their participation in the event if it is rescheduled, provided such cancellation is given within one week following receipt of this notification. In such cases claims for payment of stand rental no longer apply.

9.3 For Events that have Already Commenced

If MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) is obliged to shorten or cancel an event that has already begun, as a-result of force majeure, exhibitors are not entitled to assert claims for repayment or for exemption form the stand rental charge.

10 Exhibitors Passes

10.1 Exhibitors Passes

Exhibitors will receive a limited number of special passes valid for the duration of the exhibition or fair, for use by themselves and their employees, and entitling them to admission free of charge. Additional details can be found in the conditions of participation.

10.2 Regulations Applying to Both Types of Passes

Passes are issued in the holder's name or must be filled in correctly by the holder. They are not transferable and are only valid in conjunction with an official ID document. In cases of misuse the passes will be withdrawn without compensation. In the case of joint participation by a number of exhibitors, only the authorized exhibitor will receive the required passes. Additional passes are available, for which a charge will be made.

11 Photographs and Film, Video and Sound Recordings

MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) is entitled to take photographs, make drawings, or to make films or video recordings of events taking place at the fair, of structures and stands, or of exhibits, and to use these for advertising purposes or for publication in the media. No objections for whatever reason by exhibitors will be entertained. This also applies to photographs or recordings made directly by the press or television with the approval of MB Exhibitions (Shanghai).

12 Advertising

12.1 Scope

Advertising of all kinds is permitted but only within the stand hired by the exhibitor, on behalf of the exhibitor's own company, and only for exhibits manufactured or distributed by the exhibiting firm.

12.2 Approval

Advertising by means of loudspeakers, the display of slides or films, or the inclusion of performances or shows require the written approval of MB Exhibitions (Shanghai). Written approval must also be obtained for the use of other equipment and installations intended to enhance the impact of advertising either optically or acoustically. Advertising of a political nature is strictly prohibited.

13 Official Approval, Legal Regulations, Technical Guidelines

In all cases it is the responsibility of the exhibitor to obtain official approval. Exhibitors are responsible for ensuring the compliance with performing rights regulations, as well as with regulations pertaining to trading and industrial law, police regulations, health regulations and other legal requirements. Moreover, exhibitors must observe the "Technical Guidelines" as specified in the Exhibitor Service Manual, in particular with regard to the regulations contained therein relating to stand construction and design, and the extensive safety regulations also specified in this folder.

14 Regulations for the Maintenance of Order

14.1 Domiciliary Rights

During the event the exhibitors are subject to domiciliary rights of MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) and the event venue management company which apply throughout the Exhibition grounds. Exhibitors must comply with instructions given by employees of MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) and the event venue management company, who will prove their identity by means of an appropriate identification document.

14.2 Parking Spaces

The parking spaces offered through the event venue are limited and are available to exhibitors and need to be paid individually. MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) is not responsible for any vehicle parked in all parking facilities

14.3 Access to the Exhibition Grounds

Vehicles which do not have the correct authorization or a document entitling them to park within the Exhibition Grounds will not be allowed access to the grounds during the event. Regulations pertaining to the delivery of goods and other items are covered by the conditions of participation.

14.4 Leaving the Grounds

Exhibitors and accompanying persons must leave the halls within one hour following the official closing time each day. Any persons wishing to leave the exhibition with packages must furnish proof that they are entitled to do so to the security staff at the exits.

14.5 Miscellaneous

No animals are permitted on the Exhibition Grounds. Water required for use in connection with foodstuffs or for the cleaning of utensils coming into immediate contact with foodstuffs may only be obtained from taps supplying hygienic water. Water for such purposes may not be obtained from toilet facilities.

14.6 Environmental Protection

Exhibitors are required to make every effort to protect the environment. In this respect they should also observe the Environmental Guidelines of MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) which are enclosed with the Exhibitor Service Manual.

15 General Regulations, Deadlines

15.1 Deadlines

The construction and dismantling periods will be specified in the Exhibition Terms and Conditions.

15.2 Construction, Services for Exhibitors

The Exhibitor Service Manual contains a list of services available from companies authorized by MB Exhibitions (Shanghai), regarding planning, construction and design of standard and individual stands.

15.3 Dismantling Period

Stands may not be cleared before the end of the event. Dismantling must be completed by the end of the allotted dismantling period. On expiry of this period MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) is entitled to undertake dismantling, removal of exhibits and their storage at the exhibitor's expense, or to order such arrangements to be made at the exhibitors' expense. MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) will only be liable for losses or damage to exhibits when such losses or damages are due to deliberate action or gross negligence. MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) is entitled to impose liens to cover any expenses thus incurred.

16 Stand Design

16.1 Authorization Certificate

All Exhibitors who have chosen a complete stand package or have appointed the officially appointed stand constructor of MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) with the design and construction of their individual stand do not need to submit their booth plans for approval. All exhibitors who have chosen to build an individual stand (raw space rented) have to submit their booth plans to the officially appointed stand constructor for approval before the deadline stated in the Exhibition Terms and Conditions. The submission of booth plans for approval can be done digitally in the ITB China Online Service Center. Complete details can be found in the Exhibitor Service Manual.

16.2 General Appearance

The exhibition stand must comply with the overall plan for the exhibition. MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) reserves the right to prohibit construction of unsuitable or inadequately designed stands.

16.3 Stand Equipment and Fittings during the Hours that the Event is Open

The stand must be correctly equipped and furnished and staffed by competent personnel throughout the duration of the fair or exhibition, between the stipulated opening times.

16.4 Penalty Clause

If the exhibitor fails to comply with the regulations as stated above (No. 16, Item 2, 3), MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) is entitled to impose a penalty of US$ 1,000.00 per day if its instructions and warnings are not heeded.

17 Exhibitor Service Manual

Together with the confirmation of order exhibitors will be supplied with or get access to the online version of the Exhibitors Service Manual, containing information about the following: Technical guidelines, technical equipment standards in the halls, installations, stand constructions, design and furnishing, as well as about other services at trade fairs provided by MB Exhibitions (Shanghai), PR work, the catalogue, room reservations and other services. It also contains the necessary forms.

18 General Inspection, Cleaning

a) MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) will provide security cover for the halls. However, it will only be liable for damages in the case of deliberate acts or gross negligence. Security cover for the exhibition stand itself is a matter for the exhibitors. They are advised to take out appropriate insurance cover against such risks. During the night valuable and easily removed items should be securely locked up. Private security staff to guard the stands during the night-time may only be employed subject to written agreement by MB Exhibitions (Shanghai).

b) MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) will provide general cleaning on the grounds and in the aisles. Exhibitors are responsible for cleaning their own stands. Such cleaning work must be completed each day prior to the opening of the event.

c) If the exhibitors do not employ their own personnel, stand cleaning and security must be arranged through the relevant company appointed by MB Exhibitions (Shanghai).

d) The exhibitor or his appointed stand constructor are responsible for disposing of any waste materials resulting from their work. In this respect the rules laid down in the environmental guidelines in the Exhibitor Service Manual must be observed.

19 Technical Installations

Regular supplies of electricity, water, gas and telephone services, along with other services in the halls, will be provided by companies authorized by MB Exhibitions MB Exhibitions (Shanghai). Further details are contained in the conditions of participation.

20 Photography

The taking of photographs, films or videos on behalf of exhibitors during the daily opening hours of the event may only be carried out by photographers, film or video production companies thus authorized by MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) and in possession of the appropriate pass. Such authorization also applies prior to and after the daily opening hours of the event. No other photographers or production companies will be permitted access to the Exhibition Grounds. Information on this matter can be obtained from the MB Exhibitions (Shanghai).

21 Catering Services

Catering services are provided exclusively by companies authorized by MB Exhibitions (Shanghai).

22 Data Protection

The exhibitor expressly agrees that MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) may store, process, or disseminate personal information – including electronically processed data – for business purposes in accordance with People's Republic of China data protection laws. The exhibitor expressly agrees that MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) may store, process or disseminate business information – including electronically processed data – as long as necessary to achieve the objectives of MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) or its affiliates, or to fulfill any other justifiable needs.

23 Concluding Regulations

23.1 Changes and Amendments in Writing

Any changes to the contents of this agreement (No. 1 Item 2), and ancillary agreements, are only legally binding if they have been confirmed in writing by MB Exhibitions (Shanghai).

23.2 People's Republic of China Law

The mutual rights and obligations deriving from this contractual arrangement and resulting from this contract are subject to the law of the People's Republic of China.

23.3 Place of Performance and Venue

Place of fulfillment is Shanghai. Any dispute arising from or in connection with the Contract, including any question regarding its conclusion, implementation, existence, validity or termination etc., shall be submitted to Shanghai International Arbitration Center ("SHIAC") for arbitration. The arbitral award shall be final and binding upon both Parties. The arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the SHIAC arbitration rules issued by SHIAC as in force at the date of submitting the dispute. The place of arbitration shall be Shanghai and the arbitration language shall be English. The arbitrators shall refer to the English language version of the contract.

23.4 Redemptory Clause

If any individual provisions in these conditions of participation become void, this shall not affect the validity of the other regulations. The void provision should be altered in such a way as to fulfill the intended purpose.

All of the above prices are subject to additional applicable value-added tax and local surcharges.

5. Appointments

Per 9sqm each exhibitor receives one set of appointments with buyers. The ITB China Matchmaking System helps to match the supply and demand of both the buyers and exhibitors. A certain number of accepted appointments cannot be guaranteed as MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) is the technical facilitator and cannot be held responsible if buyers are not interested in meeting up with some of the exhibitors and thus exhibitors may not be able to get their targeted number of appointments and vice versa. Additionally, MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) cannot guarantee the fulfillment of agreed appointments. The exhibitor agrees to indemnify both MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) and its Secretariat against nonfulfillment of exhibitor's target number of appointments. Additional sets of appointments (incl. listing in online and printed exhibitor directories) may be purchased at US$ 1,730 each with a maximum of ONE additional set per 9 sqm.

6. Cancellation

6.1. If exhibitors withdraw after the official application deadline of 31 January 2025, a charge equivalent to 30% of the invoiced amount will be payable. This increases to 40% for withdrawals after 28 February 2025, and after 31 March 2025 the full invoiced amount is due.

6.2. Exhibitors are not entitled to assert claims for reimbursement of costs incurred in connection with the cancelled participation according to 6.1.

7. Terms of payment

The period of payment is specified in the invoice. Please quote invoice number and client number. All payments should be made to one of the accounts indicated on the invoice. Exhibitors are to pay all money remittance charges on top of the invoiced amounts. The participation is subject to the condition that all outstanding and due claims of MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) against the exhibitor have been settled in full. Under no circumstances are exhibitors allowed to set up their booth, if the payment has not been made in full to MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) before the start of the construction period. MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) reserves the right to charge a processing fee of US$ 50,00 per invoice copy for changes to invoices or additional invoices issued for which MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) is not responsible.

8. Official Catalogue

An official catalogue will be issued; the Organizers do not accept any responsibilities for any omissions, misquotations or other errors, which may occur in the compilation of this catalogue.

9. Regulations Governing Halls and Indoor Places

A. Night work ban and early stand set-up: There is a general night work ban during the set-up phase. The work period is from 09:00 a.m. - 10:00 p.m.
B. Events at the stand must be registered using the appropriate form in the Exhibitor Service. According to the size of the event, the exhibitor is charged extra costs for additional security personnel (compulsory) and additional services, e.g. barriers, personnel for providing sanitary fittings, checkroom, sanitary services, etc. The technical department will coordinate with you on the details.
C. Direct sale of products such as food, drinks or typical souvenir at ITB China is not permitted.
D. Product presentations and events during the trade show are not allowed to disturb other exhibitors. Noise emittance from presentations is not allowed to exceed 60 decibels.
E. Advertising of all kinds is only permitted within the exhibitor's official stand area.
F. No political natured information material of any kind may be distributed. Moreover, no political statement may be included in the design and decoration of the stands.

14. Change of the form of company

The lessee undertakes to notify the lessor immediately about any change in the form of the company (merger of transformation), even if the change only affects the legal form, with no devolution of property. The obligation to provide such information also applies to links between companies and structural changes to the company's legal form (changes in holdings resulting from the inclusion or withdrawal of shareholders and holdings by the lessee in other or previous companies which have or have had a contractual relationship with MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) etc. In the above cases the lessor is entitled to withdraw from the exhibition agreement with immediate effect. Any down payments made up to that time will be reimbursed. No claims for damages by the lessee will be entertained, regardless of their legal basis.

15. Usage rights

15.1. The exhibitor hereby grants MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) the simple, non-exclusive, non-transferable, worldwide usage rights ("Usage Rights"), limited to the agreed purpose and term of the exhibition contract, to use the data, logos, brands, images, advertising spots, advertisements, links, etc. provided by the exhibitor to MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) in connection with the services to be provided by MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) (collectively referred to as "exhibitor contents") at the event, into the event website, the event platform and any other event related medium, to display, reproduce, disseminate and make them publicly accessible, as well as to technically process them to the extent necessary for the provision of services by MB Exhibitions (Shanghai). The aforementioned granting of Usage Rights shall also apply in particular to existing and future copyrights and ancillary copyrights to the exhibitor contents, the right to one's own image, as well as rights to names, titles, trademarks and other signs ("property rights").

15.2. If and to the extent that a database, databases, a database system or database systems are created on MB Exhibitions (Shanghai)'s server during the term of the respective exhibition contract, in particular by compiling data and/or exhibitor contents of the exhibitor through activities permitted under this contract, MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) shall be entitled to all rights thereto. MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) shall remain the owner of the databases or database systems even after the end of the contract. This shall not affect the exhibitor's ownership of their data and exhibitor contents.

15.3. MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) reserves the right, without any obligation to check, to remove the provided exhibitor contents from entries, contributions or other publications or not to publish it, if it is credibly informed that

15.3.1. its contents violate laws, regulations or official orders; or 15.3.2. its contents infringe the presumed rights of third parties; or

15.3.3. its contents were objected to in a complaint procedure; or

15.3.4. the presentation of the exhibitor contents is unreasonable for MB Exhibitions (Shanghai). "Unreasonable" within the meaning of this section shall in particular include contents and representations which violate the principles of the protection of minors, which are in any form discriminatory or offensive or which refer to such content and representations, or which do not meet the quality standards usually expected for such content and/or representations in technical and/or qualitative terms, and for which it is therefore to be feared that MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) and/or the event will suffer not inconsiderable damage to its image.

15.4. MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) reserves the right to remove or not to publish entries, contributions or any other publication of the provided exhibitor contents, if it is credibly made aware of circumstances which make the publication of the exhibitor contents unreasonable for MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) due to the contents, origin or technical form.

15.5. Furthermore, MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) reserves the right to remove or not to publish exhibitor contents if the exhibitor subsequently makes changes to the provided exhibitor contents itself, or if the exhibitor subsequently changes the exhibitor content referred to by means of a published link within its sphere of influence, and if the requirements of 15.3 or 15.4 are thereby fulfilled.

15.6. MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) shall inform the exhibitor immediately of the measures taken in accordance with 15.3 to 15.5. The exhibitor shall have no claims for damages against MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) due to the resulting delays in the provision of services or the resulting failure of services by MB Exhibitions (Shanghai), unless MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) acted with intent or gross negligence (also see the limitation of liability in accordance with 18).

15.7. The exhibitor each guarantee that they are the respective owners of the exhibitor contents they have transferred and that they can effectively grant the Usage Rights specified in 15.1 to MB Exhibitions (Shanghai). The exhibitor also guarantees that the exhibitor contents made available is free of third-party rights which could conflict with the granting of rights under this contract. The exhibitor guarantees that no personal rights of third parties will be infringed by the use of the exhibitor contents within the framework of this contract, in particular that the persons depicted agree to the use of the exhibitor contents as specified in the contract.

15.8. If third parties assert an infringement of their rights through the use of the exhibitor contents, the exhibitor shall indemnify MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) upon first request from all claims of third parties, in particular from claims for copyright and personal rights violations, infringement of patent, trademark, design and utility model rights, in the event of culpable action. This includes any costs incurred by MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) for legal defense. The exhibitor shall immediately notify MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) of any impairment of the rights covered by the contract. Any measures taken by the exhibitor must be agreed in advance with MB Exhibitions (Shanghai). The exhibitor is also obliged to support MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) fully and unreservedly in the defense of their rights.

15.9. The granting of Usage Rights in accordance with 15.1 to 15.8 shall be compensated by the advertising effect generated by the publication of the exhibitor's contents and contributions.

16. Obligations of the Exhibitor

16.1. The exhibitors are obliged to provide the contributions and cooperation required for the provision of services by MB Exhibitions (Shanghai), e.g. provision of logo, claim, URL for website, functionality of links, etc., in good time and at their own expense. The submission deadlines communicated by MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) shall be decisive. If logos, contributions, and other exhibitor contents are to be published with a graphic design, these must be submitted - also by the submission deadline - in accordance with specifications for media data published by MB Exhibitions (Shanghai).

16.2. Exhibitors are responsible for the contents and presentation (e.g. graphic presentation or illustration) of the exhibitor content. If logos, contributions and/or other exhibitor content is submitted in other file formats, MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) shall not assume any guarantee for proper presentation. No political natured statements or contents of any kind may be published by the exhibitor.

16.3. If the exhibitor's contributions or obligations to cooperate are not made in time, MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) shall not be bound by its obligations to provide services. In this case, the agreed performance obligation of the exhibitor shall however remain in force. This also applies even if the exhibitor does not provide any content for the purpose of participation in the event.

16.4. The exhibitor shall inform MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) immediately as soon as he/she becomes aware of any indications that exhibitor's contents cannot be accessed or used in any other way.

16.5. The exhibitor shall be obliged to inform the co-exhibitor of the content of these Terms and Conditions, in particular of the obligations of the co-exhibitor arising from them. The exhibitor shall ensure that the co-exhibitor is committed to the obligations and requirements of these Terms and Conditions to the same extent as the exhibitor is committed to MB Exhibitions (Shanghai).

17. Reservations (organizer cancellation, postponement, shortening and termination of the event due to a justified exceptional situation as well as cancellation for economic reasons)

17.1. In the event of a justified exceptional situation (as defined in 17.2), which makes it impossible or unreasonably difficult to hold the event within the planned spatial and/or temporal scope, MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) shall be entitled, at its discretion and taking into account the interests of the exhibitor in holding the event (and, in the event of a change to or deviation from the agreed service, also taking into account the reasonableness of such a change or deviation for the exhibitor), to choose whether to hold the event,

17.1.1. to cancel the event ("Cancellation") or

17.1.2. to postpone the event to another period ("Postponement") or

17.1.3. to shorten the event period ("Shortening") or

17.1.4. to terminate the event ("Termination") if the event had already started when such a situation arises.

17.2. A "justified exceptional situation" within the meaning of 17.1 is the existence of force majeure or another comparable event.

17.2.1. "Force Majeure" is an event with external influence, unforeseeable at the time of the conclusion of the exhibition contract, has no operational or personal connection or cannot be attributed to the sphere of one of the contractual parties and cannot be averted even by exercising the utmost care that can reasonably be expected. This includes in particular but not exhaustively, the events listed below as examples: Natural disasters and their consequences, war, terrorist attacks, pandemics, endemics, the interruption or massive impairment of transport, supply or telecommunications connections.
Cases of Force Majeure also include (but are not limited to) the enactment of legal regulations (e.g. laws or ordinances) or official or public law measures for which the contractual parties are not responsible or urgent official warnings or recommendations relating to the fact that the event cannot or may not be carried out as planned.

17.2.2. "Other comparable events" in accordance with 17.2 shall also be deemed to include unforeseeable lawful strikes and lawful lockouts as well as other interruptions or disruptions of operations for which the contractual parties are not responsible.

17.2.3. An event is considered to be "unforeseeable" within the meaning of the aforementioned 17.2.1 and 17.2.2 if, at the time of conclusion of the contract, it could not be assumed, after reasonable assessment of actual indications and with regard to the time of the event, with sufficient probability, that a case of force majeure or "other comparable event" was imminent.

17.3. Furthermore, a justified exceptional situation as per 17.2 shall also be deemed to exist if, at the time of the measure taken in accordance with 17.1, it can be assumed with sufficient probability based on a reasonable assessment of actually existing indications that a case of Force Majeure or "other comparable event" within the meaning of 17.2 is imminent at the time of the event. This is also the case, for example, if a justified exceptional situation existed at an earlier point in time and has been remedied in the meantime, but a new justified exceptional situation is to be expected at the time of the event.

17.4. The following is applicable in cases of cancellation of the event by MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) as per 17.1.1:

17.4.1. MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) shall be obliged to inform the exhibitors immediately of the cancellation.

17.4.2. MB Exhibitions (Shanghai)'s claim to the stand rental fee shall lapse and the stand rental fee already paid shall be refunded to the corresponding exhibitor. However, the exhibitor shall reimburse any ancillary services and additional services already provided by MB Exhibitions (Shanghai).

17.4.3. Claims for damages by the exhibitor due to the cancellation of the event shall be excluded because MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) is not at fault. If and insofar as MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) is at fault in an individual case, the regulations in 18 shall apply with regard to the liability of MB Exhibitions (Shanghai).

17.5. The following is applicable in cases of temporal postponement as per 17.1.2 and a shortening as per 17.1.3:

17.5.1. MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) shall be obliged to provide the exhibitor with a statement regarding the postponement and/or shortening.

17.5.2. The contract shall be amended to the extent that it applies to the new period or duration of the event and the exhibitor does not object to the amendment of the contract within twenty-eight (28) working days of receipt of the notification.

17.5.3. If the exhibitor objects to the postponement and/or shortening, MB Exhibitions (Shanghai)'s claim to the stand rental fee shall lapse and the stand rental fee already paid shall be refunded to the corresponding exhibitor. MB Exhibitions (Shanghai)'s claim to remuneration for additional services already provided shall remain unaffected by this.

17.5.4. Claims for damages by the exhibitor shall be excluded because MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) is not at fault. If and insofar as MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) is at fault in an individual case, the regulations in 18 shall apply with regard to the liability of MB Exhibitions (Shanghai).

17.6. The following is applicable in cases of termination of the event as per 17.1.4:

17.6.1. MB Exhibitions (Shanghai)'s claim to payment of the full stand rental shall continue to exist, unless the termination of the event leads to a shortening of the event period by more than 40%. In this case, MB Exhibitions (Shanghai)'s claim shall be reduced to 80% of the stand rental fee and the difference between the stand rental fee and the amount already paid shall be refunded to the corresponding exhibitor. MB Exhibitions (Shanghai)'s claim to remuneration for additional services already provided shall remain unaffected by this.

17.6.2. Claims for damages by the exhibitor shall be excluded because MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) is not at fault. If and insofar as MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) is at fault in an individual case, the regulations in 18 shall apply with regard to the liability of MB Exhibitions (Shanghai).

17.7. Notwithstanding the above provisions, MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) shall be entitled to cancel the event at its reasonable discretion and taking into account the justified interests of the exhibitors (which shall include, among other things, the preparatory measures already taken by the exhibitors for the event) and to terminate the corresponding exhibition contracts at the latest twelve (12) weeks before the planned date of the event, if economic viability cannot be achieved or if the level of registrations indicates that the essential objective of the event (in particular the presentation of a representative range of products and services from one or more economic sectors) cannot be achieved and the purpose of the event is therefore missed. The deadline may be shortened if the nature of the event allows for cancellation at shorter notice. The following applies in this case:

17.7.1. MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) shall provide reasons for the cancellation of the event and the termination of exhibition contracts.

17.7.2. With the cancellation of the event and the termination of contracts, MB Exhibitions (Shanghai)'s claim to payment of the stand rental fee shall lapse. The stand rental fee that has already been paid shall be refunded to the corresponding exhibitors. MB Exhibitions (Shanghai)'s claim to remuneration for additional services already provided shall remain unaffected by this.

17.7.3. MB Exhibitions (Shanghai)'s claim to remuneration for additional services that have already been provided shall remain unaffected by this.

17.7.4. Claims for damages by the exhibitor shall be excluded because MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) is not at fault. If and insofar as MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) is at fault in an individual case, the regulations in 18 shall apply with regard to the liability of MB Exhibitions (Shanghai).

18 Liability

18.1. MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) does not guarantee that the agreed services will achieve the effect intended by the exhibitor, unless MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) has made its execution more difficult or thwarted by culpable breach of essential contractual obligations or by grossly negligent behavior. The exhibitor acknowledges that the services agreed in this contract may be restricted by public law regulations. MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) shall not be liable for damages in the event of restrictions arising from such regulations.

18.2. MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) shall be liable for damages caused intentionally or through gross negligence by MB Exhibitions (Shanghai), its legal representatives, executive staff or vicarious agents.

18.3. MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) shall be liable for damages in the case of simple negligence, subject to statutory limitations of liability (e.g. care in own affairs), only

18.3.1. for damages resulting from injury to life, body or health;

18.3.2. for damages resulting from the violation of an essential contractual obligation. "Essential contractual obligations" are those obligations whose fulfilment makes the proper execution of the contract possible in the first place and on whose observance the respective other contractual party may regularly rely. In the event of a breach of essential contractual obligations, MB Exhibitions (Shanghai)'s liability for damages in cases of simple negligence shall be limited to the amount of damages typically occurring and foreseeable at the time the contract was concluded.

18.4. Insofar as the liability of MB Exhibitions (Shanghai) is excluded or limited, this shall also apply to the employees, executives, vicarious agents and legal representatives of MB Exhibitions (Shanghai).

18.5. The aforementioned exclusions and limitations of liability shall not apply in the event of injury to life, body or health of persons caused due to negligence, the explicit assurance of characteristics and in the event of liability under the applicable law.

19. Terms of Business

The regulations contained in the Exhibitor Service Manual apply to these Special Conditions of Participation (Exhibition Terms and Conditions of ITB China 2025) as well as the General Terms of Business for Trade Fairs and Exhibitions by MB Exhibitions (Shanghai).

20. Local Data Protection Law
